FIRST
ANNOUNCEMENT AND
EARLY BOOKING DETAILS

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to our 11th London International Conference on Eating Disorders in March 2013. Each of our previous Eating Disorders conferences have far exceeded our expectations in terms of quality of the programme and number of attendees. We regularly have more than 600 participants from all over the world and we are understandably proud of how international the meeting has become.

2013 will mark 20 years since the first conference, and our anniversary year promises to be better than ever. Eating Disorders 2013 will bring together participants from all over the world to discuss the key topical issues in the field of eating disorders.

As usual the latest ideas and research findings will be presented by leaders in the field. We are delighted that our keynote speaker will be Professor Kathleen Pike from Columbia University, USA, who is an international authority on eating disorders. In addition, there will be plenary sessions on the topics of 'genetics and epigenetics', 'food, bodies and brains' and 'evidence based practice'.

As always, we will be accepting abstract submissions from anyone wanting to present in our clinical workshop, short paper and poster sessions.

The conference will once again be held at one of London's premier academic institutions: The Institute of Education, University of London. Situated in the heart of London's sightseeing and shopping districts, with the British Museum a few paces away and with close proximity to all mainline connections, it will allow you to make the most of your visit to London whilst at the conference.

We look forward to offering you our personal welcome to London in March 2013.

Very warm regards,

Professor Bryan Lask

& Dr Rachel Bryant-Waugh

Leading education
and social research
Institute of Education
University of London

Eating Disorders 2013 is being held at The Institute of Education (IOE), University of London, 20 Bedford Way, London WC1H 0AL and getting to the college could not be simpler. Within easy access of all London's major airports, superb connections from all mainline rail stations including King's Cross, St Pancras (Eurostar) and Euston, just minutes away on foot, and an underground station within a few yards of the college and moments from numerous hotels.

Bloomsbury is the traditional haunt of London's literary set and close to many of London's famous landmarks including The British Museum. A short walk to the south are the narrow streets of Soho and Covent Garden and the West End theatres surrounding Shaftesbury Avenue and Covent Garden, a shoppers' paradise, home to the Royal Opera House and the London Transport Museum. To the south-west is Oxford Street. For more exclusive shopping, walk on to Regent Street, Bond Street and the glittering attractions of Mayfair. If you're looking for green space, head north towards Regent's Park and London Zoo. Both are close to Camden Town, the site of a series of lively street markets. You will have plenty to do after an educational and stimulating day at the conference.
